

WOMAN THREATENS CHAFFEE'S LIFE.

Widow of Soldier Says She Will Kill General If She Does Not Get Satisfaction—Has Made Charges, She Says.

Prepared to take the law into her own hands, Mrs. Almie White, of Verde, Ariz., is coming to New York, where she expects to have a settlement with Gen. Chaffee when he arrives from the Philippines, according to a report from El Paso, Tex. She is the widow of a discharged soldier of the Eighth Infantry.

On his death bed her husband exacted a pledge that she would prefer charges against Gen. Chaffee for alleged cruel treatment at Camp McDowell, a post near the San Carlos reservation, Arizona.

Mrs. White charges that Gen. Chaffee, then a major, sent soldiers to their home, which was just outside the reservation, burned her house and drove off all their cattle. In the despatch from El Paso Mrs. White says:

"I am going to New York to meet Gen. Chaffee, and if he does not give me satisfaction I'll shoot him dead in his tracks. I have preferred charges, but he prevented them from getting before Congress. I have told Gen. Miles about it and he says for me to wait. I have waited long enough to settle the matter, and I am going to have it. I'll have his life or satisfactory reparation."

But Before Little Martha Gray Turned Up All Greenwich Village Was Astir.

Five-year-old Martha Gray had Greenwich Village turned topsy-turvy last night by the report that she had been kidnapped. Martha is a brown-haired little beauty and lives with her parents at No. 18 Gay street. Her mother is janitress of a flat-house in Ninth street, and during the day Martha is in the care of her sixteen-year-old sister Nellie. She was let play about the streets all day yesterday on account of the fine weather.

She ran up to her father and kissed him when he got home from work last evening, but when Nellie went out to call her for supper she was not to be found. Her companions knew she had gone, but where, when or how was quite beyond them.

Mrs. Gray raised a terrible commotion when she got home after dark and found her little one missing. She aroused the whole neighborhood and packed her husband off to Police Headquarters to report the child's disappearance. Neighbors dropped in to extend sympathy. There was no sleep in the Gray home or in the immediate vicinity, for Mrs. Gray's grief was vociferous.

About 4 o'clock this morning, having worked herself up into a frenzy, she threw her hands above her head and shrieked at the top of her voice: "Mattie, Mattie, wherever you are, in God's name come to me!"

There was a stir under the bed, and a very sleepy kid crawled, blinking, into the light. She was much mystified by the crowd of neighbors and her mother's demonstrative greeting. After Martha was fully awake she explained that she felt tired after her day's play to think of supper, and she crawled upstairs and under the bed. She had slept a solid nine hours through all the excitement caused by her disappearance.

PRETTY GIRL'S BODY IS WASHED ASHORE

Eighteen Years Old and a Blonde, It Is Believed She Committed Suicide by Plunging Into Union Lake.

MILLVILLE, N. J., Aug. 12.—The body of a pretty young woman was washed ashore at Union Lake, near here, and it is believed that she committed suicide. She is a blonde, about eighteen years old and a stranger here. There was nothing about her by which she could be identified.

The body was found by boys who were running down the beach when they saw the body lying near the water with the face buried in the sand. It is believed that the young woman came to this city and went directly to the lake, where she jumped in.

RUN OVER BY TRAIN.

Daniel Smith Is Killed Near Van Nest Station.

Daniel Smith, forty-seven years old, of East Amherst, Mass., was run over by a train of the New York and Haven and Hartford Railroad at the Van Nest station. Both his legs were almost cut from his body. The man was taken to the Fordham Hospital and died there.

The police say they think Smith was stealing a ride on the train, had been chased by some train hand and had started to cross the tracks when he was struck by a train passing in the opposite direction.

LEG BROKEN BY A CYCLIST.

Wheel Runs Down James Cullen, Who Is Sent to Hospital.

James Cullen, thirty-six years old, of No. 35 West One Hundred and Forty-sixth street, while crossing the street at No. 220 Fifth avenue to-day was knocked down by a cyclist. His left leg was fractured and he was taken to Harlem Hospital.

The cyclist escaped and his name was not learned. The police are looking for

FLORENCE BURNS AT SARATOGA?

Girl Looking Very Much Like Her Is Seen at an Office on Broadway in That City.

SARATOGA, Aug. 12.—It is believed that Florence Burns is in Saratoga. Several persons who say they know her say they have seen her. She called at an office near Broadway and asked the agent if there was a money order for "Frances Burns."

He produced a money order for "Florence Burns." She said there must be some mistake, and then he thought he recognized in her the beautiful Brooklyn girl who figured in the Brooks murder case and asked her:

"Are you not Florence Burns?" "I asked for Frances Burns," was the freezing answer. "Then this is not for Frances Burns," said the agent, and the young woman swept out of the office.

LOST HIS WIFE FOR $150.

Purchaser Wanted Rhoda to Trade Back, and Fight Followed.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 12.—The story of the sale of a wife was brought out in a hearing before Burgess J. Clyde Miller.

Mrs. Mary Rhoda, a handsome young woman, was sold by her husband, Andy Rhoda, to Steve Kowash for $150. Kowash boarded with the Rhodas and last week the sale was made. Rhoda told the money and left, but yesterday returned for his trunk.

When he appeared at the house Kowash told him he ruined his bargain and wanted his money back. Rhoda refused to return it and a fight followed. The men were arrested, but the Burgess could see no way to settle the matter. The woman says she is satisfied with either of the men.

Fill out blank spaces and mail to "Straw Hat Hunt, Evening World, P. O. Box 1364, New York City."

The five straw hats secretly marked by The Evening World are still "out." Twenty dollars awaits any one finding one of these marked hats. They are no doubt in Greater New York. It should be an easy matter to find them. The men who are wearing these hats are unconsciously carrying $20 about on their heads.

Here are some hints to guide you: Each of the marked hats has a single letter pasted under the sweat band.

One hat was of rough straw; price $12.
Another was of smooth straw; price $100.

The third was an alpine shape, seamed, light straw; price 50 cents.
The other two the hunters must guess at.

Look for these marks. You may find one or more.

Send description of hat, size and make, with place and time of purchase, to "Straw Hat Hunt, Evening World, P. O. Box 1364 New York City."

Miss Adele Ritchie, prima donna of "A Chinese Honeymoon" company at the Casino Theatre, had an altercation with a cab driver near the Grand Central Station which attracted a big crowd.

Miss Ritchie lives at Oriental Point, Mamaroneck, and when she arrived in the city yesterday afternoon she hired a cab to take her from the station to the theatre. She stipulated that the cabby drive by way of Forty-third street. The driver started across town on Forty-second street and the actress expostulated. Thereupon the driver said he would go any way he pleased.

Miss Ritchie became excited and grabbing the reins pulled the horse up so suddenly that the cabby flew off his seat and landed on his head.

The cabby swore and two policemen interfered. In the mean time traffic had become blocked and there was great confusion. Miss Ritchie finally hired another cab and went her way in peace and via Forty-third street.

GIRL SLOWLY SINKS TO DEATH IN CLAY.

Left Alone by Companions, Who Sought Aid, She Tore Out Handfuls of Hair in Last Agony.

TRENTON, Aug. 12.—Ada Reynolds, sixteen years old, suffered the horrible death of slowly sinking in a clay pit while her companions went in search of help.

In company with girl companions she was wading in a little pond at the rear of the Interstate Fair Grounds, and she stepped into a hole, the bottom of which was of clay. Her companions attempted to rescue her, but finding that their feet were also being held by the clay abandoned their attempts and went in search of assistance.

They were gone a half hour and in the meantime the Reynolds girl sank beneath the water. When her body was pulled out the clay enveloped it up to her waist, the head being a foot under water. In her death agony she tore two large handfuls of hair out, and it was found tightly grasped between her fingers.
